

AHRC SFC Knowledge Exchange Programme: A healthier Scotland

Projects

1. Visualising the invisible: developing innovative approaches to visualisation to help NHS staff prevent and control Healthcare Associated Infections, Dr Colin Macduff, Robert Gordon University (lead partners NHS Lanarkshire, NHS Grampian, NHS Education)
Costs requested: £99, 391
Art and Design
2. Harnessing the Heritage of Football: : Creating Meaningful Activities and Therapeutic Work with People with dementia, Dr Debbie Tolson, Glasgow Caledonian University (lead partners Scottish Football Museum, Alzheimer Scotland)
Costs requested: £74, 994
Oral History, Curatorship
3. Facilitating Engagement with Hospital Grounds: Greenspace Design, Development and Management for Health and Wellbeing, Dr Sarah-Anne Munoz, UHI Millenium Institute (lead partners Forestry Commission Scotland, NHS Forth Valley, NHS Highland)
Costs requested: £90, 140
Cultural Geography
4. Sunshine, Health and Wellbeing in Housing, Dr Tim Sharpe, Glasgow School of Art (lead partner Glasgow Housing Association)
Costs requested: £41, 632
Architecture
5. The Art of Meaningful Access: Understanding and reducing the effect of visual impairment on young people's art appreciation, Dr David Feeney, Edinburgh University (lead partners NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde, Flip: Disability Equality in the Arts, Fruitmarket Gallery, Project Ability)
Costs requested: £99, 765
History of Art, Museum Studies
6. Towards a Training Model for Effective Ethical Translation in Health Care Settings in Scotland, Professor Alison Phipps, University of Glasgow (lead partner Black and Ethnic Minority Infrastructure Scotland)
Costs requested: £98, 334
Linguistics, Communication Studies

Date Awarded - 11th March 2011.