

Connected Communities Programme – ESRC / AHRC Crime and Communities Follow-up Development Projects, 2010-11

Dr Basia Spalek B.spalek@bham.ac.uk	Institute of Applied Social Studies University of Birmingham	Community-Police Engagement and Partnerships for Preventing Terror Crime: a collaboration involving researchers in the UK, in the US and in Egypt
Professor Lorraine Gamman L.gammon@csm.arts.ac.uk	Design Against Crime Research Centre University of the Arts	Dialogues with Graffiti for the Twenty First Century City
Ms Jo-Anne Bichard Jo-anne.bichard@rca.ac.uk	Helen Hamlyn Centre Royal College of Art	Robust Accessible Toilets: A site for Inclusive Design out Crime
Professor Martin Innes InnesM@cardiff.ac.uk	Universities' Police Science Institute, University of Cardiff	Community Networks and Mobilisation in Delivering Neighbourhood Security: Exploring Concepts of 'Horizontal' and 'Vertical' Co-Production
Professor Martin Innes InnesM@cardiff.ac.uk	Universities' Police Science Institute, University of Cardiff	'Big Society' and Drug Treatment – Exploring the client data of a drugs services provider to consider the role social networks may have in improving outcomes for substance misusing offenders and reducing offending behaviour
Mr Spencer Chainey s.chainey@ucl.ac.uk	Jill Dando Institute of Security and Crime Science University College London	Delivering safer communities: knowledge transfer secondment with Community Safety Partnerships to help them reduce crime and victimisation
Mr Spencer Chainey s.chainey@ucl.ac.uk	Jill Dando Institute of Security and Crime Science University College London	Improving engagement with communities: exploring the potential of community intelligence utilising contemporary geographical analysis and geographic information
Mr Spencer Chainey s.chainey@ucl.ac.uk	Jill Dando Institute of Security and Crime Science University College London	What do communities want? Understanding how the publishing of local crime statistics impacts community reassurance
Mr Spencer Chainey s.chainey@ucl.ac.uk	Jill Dando Institute of Security and Crime Science University College London	Impact of geographic variables on prisoner re-introduction and re-offending