

Awarded Religion and Society Collaborative Research Studentships 2008

HEI	HEI Department	Partner institution	Project Title	Lead applicant HEI
Birkbeck College	School of Continuing Education	National Union of Students	Negotiating the secular and the religious in higher education: an analysis of the policy implications of contemporary conflicts relating to student faith groups in British universities	Dr Gordon Lynch
Leeds Metropolitan University	School of Applied Global Ethics	Yorkshire and Humber Regional Migration Partnership	Deriving meaning in transition: the role of religion for young refugees and asylum seekers	Professor Simon Robinson
The Open University	Department of Religious Studies	Christian Education	From Sunday Schools to Christian Education: The Christian Formation of Contemporary Youth in Historical Perspective	Professor John Wolffe
University of Birmingham	Institute for Applied Social Studies	Youth Justice Board	The role of religious faith identities in shaping youth offending behaviours	Professor David Stephenson
University of Leeds	School of Theology and Religious Studies	Bradford Educational and Cultural Association of Sikhs	Sikh identity and the formation and transmission of "Sikhism" in Britain: Young Sikhs (18-30 years)	Professor Kim Knott