

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

AHRC Cross-Disciplinary Networking and Information Event (Town Meeting) on Anti-Microbial Resistance in the Indoor and Built Environment

Amba Hotel, Bryanston St, London, W1H 7EH

30 November 2016 (10:00 am–3:30 pm)

- 10:00 Registration opens
- 10:30 Outline of the day and AMR initiative to date - Sam Lambshead, AHRC; Gary Grubb, AHRC & Caroline Harris, MRC
- 11:00 Presentation: Interdisciplinary AMR Research - Matthew Avison, Bristol University
- 11:15 Networking discussions on Theme 'Places, Spaces, Cultures and Practices: Interactions with and within the Indoor and Built Environment'
- 11:45 Presentation: Arts and Humanities Perspectives on Data - Andrew Prescott, Glasgow University
- 12:00 Networking discussions on Theme 'Reflection, Learning, Data and Valuing Impacts from Changes to the Indoor/ Built Environment'
- 12:30 Networking lunch
- 13:30 Presentation: AMR: A Clinical Perspective - Jon Otter, Imperial College NHS Trust
- 13:45 Networking discussions on Theme 'Pathways and Journeys through the Built Environment and the Dynamics of Change'
- 14:15 Presentation: AMR: A Design Perspective— Paul Rodgers, Imagination Lancaster
- 14:30 Networking discussion on Theme 'Creative, Collaborative and Disruptive Innovation, Experiments and Design in Indoor/ Built Environments'
- 15:00 Q&A and closing remarks - Research Councils and speakers
- 15:30 Event formally ends